

The Institute for Advanced Sovereignty: Governance and Constitutionalism

June 19-22, 2007

Seneca Niagara Casino & Hotel

Instructors: Robert Odawi Porter & Carrie E. Garrow

Director and Executive Director of the Center for Indigenous Law, Governance & Citizenship at Syracuse University College of Law

The Institute for Advanced Sovereignty is a four-day program focused on enhancing the legitimacy and effectiveness of American Indian tribal governance. The course will include instruction on Indigenous sovereignty, concepts of good governance, and how to engage in a successful government reform process.

Sessions

Introduction to Indigenous
Law and Sovereignty

Federal Indian Control Law:
The Scope of Federal Powers

Tribal Sovereignty Development

Why a Constitution?

Drafting Codes and Constitutions

Politics and Government Reform

Course Cost: $595 (which includes course materials)

Room and Board: Participants are responsible for their own lodging. Discounted rooms are available, see website for details.

Registration Deadline: An initial nonrefundable deposit of $100 is due by May 31, 2007 to reserve a place in the Institute. Full payment of $595 minus your deposit must be made by June 18, 2007.

Register online: <http://law.syr.edu/indigenous>
Registration is limited to 20 people!

For more information:

(315) 443-9558 or (315) 443-9542
ndnlaw@law.syr.edu