The Legislative Retrieval System (LRS) is a fee-based online service that offers access to New York State legislative information. Because LRS is the official record of the New York State Legislature, it is a good resource for legislative history research of NY statutes. The following information is available through LRS:

- NY Bill Status and Text Summary – 1987-current
- Full-text of NY Bills – 1987-current
- Full-text of NY Session Laws – 1987-current
- Full-text of NY Code (Consolidated Laws) – current
- Full-text of NY Rules and Regulations (NYCRR) – current
- Full-text of NYC Laws, Charter and Administrative Code – 1989-current
- Daily Bill Introduction and Action Reports – last two years only
- Legislative Sponsors' Memoranda – last two years only
- Assembly and Senate Voting Records – last two years only
- Governor's Approval or Veto Messages – last two years only
- Assembly and Senate Committee Agendas – last two years only
