

LAW! LIVE in SYRACUSE

Health Care Reform: Reality or Rhetoric?

The series provides our alumni and friends a forum for intellectual exchange on topics of interest that influence our global society and shape the law.

The inaugural lecture on October 27th will explore the history, current status and likely future of Health Care Reform in the United States. Please join two of our distinguished alumni, each with substantial experience in this area, for an evening of engaging and provocative discussion on the real issues facing Americans in health care reform. Professional practice CLE Credit is available for this program.

Tuesday, October 27, 2009

Bernard T. King, Esq., L'59

Senior Partner, Blitman & King LLP

Mr. King represents labor unions in both the private and public sectors and is counsel to numerous Pension and Health Insurance Plans. He is a frequent presenter, and has written extensively, in the area of labor, employment, and employee benefits law and has been a lecturer at Cornell University's School of Industrial and Labor Relations. Mr. King has served on numerous NYS Bar Association and ABA committees, including chairing the Labor and Employment Law Sections for both organizations. He is a Fellow of the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers, a Founding Fellow and Governor of the College of Employee Benefits Lawyers, and a Founding Member of the Industrial Relations Research Association (CLEMA's predecessor).

Andrew M. Knoll, M.D., Esq., L'03

Associate, Scolaro Shulman Cohen Fetter & Burstein

Dr. Knoll is a member of the firm's healthcare department and provides legal services to hospitals, professional organizations, and individual practitioners. Before earning his law degree, he was an emergency room physician and hospitalist for nearly two decades.

Dr. Knoll is a member of the local and state bar associations and medical societies, the American Health Lawyers Association and is a Fellow of both the American College of Physicians and of the American College of Legal Medicine. He holds an appointment as Clinical Associate Professor of Internal Medicine at Upstate Medical University. Dr. Knoll is a Persian Gulf veteran and former Navy Flight Surgeon, and was honorably discharged from the United States Naval Reserve with the rank of Commander. He has published articles in the Journal of Health Law and the Journal of Contemporary Health Law & Policy and authored a chapter on legal issues for a textbook "Comprehensive Hospital Medicine". He has been a presenter at numerous professional conferences throughout the country.

Reception begins at 6 p.m. Program begins promptly at 6:30 p.m.
Century Club of Syracuse, 480 James Street, Syracuse, NY, 315.422.6161

Come join us for an evening of engaging discussion.

NEXT SYRACUSE LECTURE: December 16, An Evening of Conversation with The Judges
Hon. Norman A. Mordue L'71, Hon. Glenn T. Suddaby L'85, Hon. John C. Cherundolo L'73,
Hon. Deborah H. Karalunas L'82, and Hon. James C. Tormey III, L'76 (Moderator)

For a listing of Law! Live lectures or to RSVP for a specific lecture, please visit please visit www.law.syr.edu/lawlivelectures or call the College of Law at 315.443.9533.

Syracuse University College of Law would like to recognize the sponsors of our 2009-10 Law! Live in Syracuse Lecture Series

Blitman & King LLP

Bottar Leone PLLC

Gilberti Stinziano Heintz & Smith PC

Green Seifter Attorneys PLLC

Hiscock & Barclay LLP

Mackenzie Hughes LLP

Scolaro Shulman Cohen Fetter & Burstein