

The Value Really Adds Up

Designed for Your Success

Named one of the “most impressive law school buildings in the world,” Dineen Hall is cutting-edge, convenient, and perfect for collaboration—it is the embodiment of a vision that has transformed the learning experience for College of Law students.

- 91.6% New York State bar passage rate for first time takers
- 13:1 student to faculty ratio
- 89% of the class of 2016 are employed or pursuing an advanced degree
- 16 study group rooms
- 325 seat ceremonial courtroom
- 14 advocacy teams sent to nationwide inter-collegiate competitions
- 30 plus student organizations

We're Affordable

- 85% of incoming fall 2017 students received College of Law scholarships
- Types of aid include: merit-based scholarships, federal student aid, SU Law Empire State Scholarship, Yellow Ribbon and other VA Benefits
- #1 highest ranked city in New York for Best Places to Live in the Country, according to US News & World Report, 2017
- #8 most affordable places to live in the US, according to US News & World Report, 2017

Earn Two Degrees for the Price of One

At Syracuse Law, a joint degree can be completed concurrently for little additional cost. Pursue a joint degree with some of the top-ranked graduate programs like the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs and the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communication among the top 5 in their rankings.

- 18% of upper-class students are pursuing a joint degree
- More than 12 joint degree options, including:
 - J.D./M.B.A.—Whitman School of Management
 - J.D./M.P.A.—Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs
 - J.D./M.S.W.—Falk College of Sport and Human Dynamics
 - J.D./M.A. in International Relations—Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs
 - J.D./M.S. in Forensic Science—College of Arts and Sciences
 - J.D./M.S. in Communications—S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communication
 - J.D./M.S. in Disability Studies—School of Education
 - J.D./M.S. in Engineering and Computer Science—College of Engineering and Computer Science

Syracuse Law Alumni—Loyal and Connected

The College of Law has more than 10,000 alumni, spread across all 50 states and 39 foreign countries. Additionally, Syracuse University's network of alumni is more than 254,724.

Class of 2016 Employment by Sector

- 1% academic
- 13% public interest
- 13% government
- 18% judicial clerkship
- 20% business
- 35% private practice

Great for Veterans

Syracuse University is ranked #1 best private school for vets and #3 best 4-year school for vets.

It All Adds Up to Value

When you add it all up, Syracuse Law is a smart choice for your future. Be a part of our next impressive class by applying today!