

Dear Student,

Congratulations on your admission to Syracuse University College of Law and best wishes for a successful academic year.

As a first year law student, we are inviting you to participate in our Textbook Reservation Program. Participating in the Textbook Reservation Program can save you considerable time, as your textbooks will be charged to your credit card, boxed, and ready for pick-up at Orientation. We match your course registration to the textbooks required by your instructors and package them for you. A time to pick up your textbooks is allocated in your schedule during your Orientation Program.

The College of Law will provide you with your final Fall 2018 class schedule when you arrive for Orientation. As a first year College of Law student you will have the ability to view your schedule on MySlice. By clicking on the Textbook Information link in MySlice, you will access the Bookstore web site where textbook information provided by your instructors is available under Books.

The University Bookstore offers a Bookstore Charge account. For terms and conditions and to apply for a Bookstore Charge account, download the Bookstore Retail Installment Agreement on our website. Once you have completed the Retail Installment Agreement please return it to the University Bookstore, Attn: Business Office, 303 University Place, Syracuse, New York, 13244-2020. The Bookstore also accepts Visa, MasterCard, Discover, American Express, personal checks, and cash for purchases. Sales tax is not charged on textbooks required by instructors.

We look forward to serving you over the coming years, and wish you the best at Syracuse University.

Sincerely,

Roger C. Hailstork
Director
