Dear Graduates,

I write to share today's Bar Examination Update from the New York Court of Appeals, that New York will administer this summer's bar examination by participating in the emergency remote testing option to be offered by the NCBE on October 5-6.

You can read the full announcement, and stay apprised of updates as they become available, by visiting the Court's website. Please direct any questions or concerns to Courtney Abbott Hill.

With my fellow New York law school deans, I will continue to advocate for our graduates to alleviate, as much as possible, the impact of COVID-19 on the launch of your careers.

As always, I wish you a good summer and know that we will get through these tumultuous times together, in strength and solidarity.

Best regards,

Craig M. Boise
