June 30, 2020

Dear Students,

Many thanks again to all of you who were able to join me for last week's webinar on the Path to Fall 2020. If you were not able to attend the conversation, you may access the recording here.

Please also visit our law preparedness web page, which we continue to update with new information on our fall academic framework. This week, all of the questions that were posed at and following the webinar will be posted on the site, with answers to each of them.

The time is now to inform us of your plans for the fall. Please complete this survey to let us know whether you plan to attend classes in person if it is possible to do so. You must complete the survey no later than July 10. To assist you in your planning, please consult the full, updated class schedule, which lays out the days, times and modalities of all classes being offered this fall. Please note that the days and times of fall courses have not changed; only the modality of classes may have been modified. Regardless of the modality of classes, you can elect to attend all classes remotely.

Moreover, due to the recent gubernatorial order in the State of New York and potential additional restrictions on travel and entry into the State of New York, please let us know in the survey all states in which will you be residing, visiting, or passing through at any time during the two week period prior to your arrival to New York State, or at the College of Law or any part of the SU campus.

As always, please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions, by emailing lawpreparedness@law.syr.edu. Please note that the schedule adjustment period for 2L and 3L students will begin on Monday, July 13 at 12:00 pm and will continue through Friday, July 24, at 11:59 pm. Questions regarding the schedule may be sent to studentrecords@law.syr.edu.

I look forward to seeing you this fall, no matter the modality of your instruction. In the meantime, stay in touch and enjoy a healthy summer

Best Regards,

Craig M. Boise
