Dear Students,

Earlier today you received Vice Chancellor Haynie's message providing updates relating to his October 6 announcement.

Effective Friday, October 16, in-person student activities which are University-sponsored can increase attendance to 25. Please be aware that the limit for events or activities at the College of Law remains as a maximum of 15. Social distancing, mask wearing ,and a ban on food and visitors continue to remain in place.

As noted below the limit of five individuals who do not live together remains for off campus social gatherings.

Please reach out to me if you have any questions or concerns.

Sarah Collins

Director of Student Affairs
