

July 6, 2020

Dear Students,

I hope that you enjoyed a good holiday weekend. Today, I write to remind you of my message below and to remind you to respond to this survey no later than Friday, July 10.

Your responses are important. If we do not hear from you, we will assume that you plan to attend all classes virtually and that you do not intend to be in Dineen Hall this fall. Please know that we are surveying you so as to optimize our planning efforts for the best experience possible for you under the constraints imposed by COVID-19.

Please note that we are relying on your answers as we plan for the fall and especially for the allocation of physical and online spaces and faculty assignments for classrooms. The expectation is that if you plan to attend class in person, you will adhere to your choice unless you become ill or your personal conditions change such that a move to virtual attendance is warranted.

Otherwise, if you let us know that you plan to attend class in person, you will be expected to be in class in Dineen Hall; you will not have the option to attend virtually. Conversely, if you indicate that you plan to attend virtually a class that is offered in person, you will not have the option of attending class in person.

Again, we regret that COVID-19 has created so much uncertainty and havoc for all of us, and especially for you, our students.

Best regards,

Craig M. Boise

Dean and Professor | College of Law