Experience

1987 –

Syracuse University College of Law
Law Library

Associate Teaching Professor of Law and Director of the Law Library (2017--)

Work closely with faculty, administrators, staff and students to design and implement library services that support the College of Law's curriculum and scholarly research. Direct all aspects of Law Library operations, including strategic planning, collection development, budgeting, space planning, hiring, training, supervising and evaluating library staff, integrating appropriate technologies, and developing, implementing and evaluating library programs and services in support of the College's academic programs. Serve on the Curriculum, Curriculum Review, and Assessment Committees. Teach Advanced Legal Research.

Associate Director & Head of Library Information Systems (2001-2016)

Managed day-to-day Law Library operations and programs including budget, educational technology, facilities, personnel management and recruiting, reference, technical services and collection development.

Associate Librarian, Head of Library Information Systems (1996-2001)

Led the Electronic Services team (library web site development, product licensing, software support) and directed the work of the Technical Services Department: acquisitions, serials, cataloging, accounts payable, and government documents.

1999-2000 Acting Library Director
1997-1998 Project Manager, Library Renovation
1996-1997 Head of Academic Computing

Head of Bibliographic (Technical) Services (1992-1996)

Managed acquisitions, serials, cataloging, accounts payable, and government documents services for library. Implemented library's first grant-supported original cataloging project. Coordinated the library's transition from a home-grown ILS (SULIRS) to commercial ILS (NOTIS, now Voyager).

Circulation Librarian (1987-1992)

Provided circulation, reserves, interlibrary loan and document delivery services to faculty, students, and other library users, and reference services as part of a three-librarian reference team.

1990-1992 Circulation & Serials Librarian

1982-1987 Librarian O'Hara & Crough
(later O'Hara, O'Connell & Ciotoli, Fayetteville, NY)

Solo librarian for central New York law firm specializing in education law, municipal law, and personal injury practice.

1985-1995, 2002 Adjunct Instructor, Legal Information Syracuse University iSchool

Taught IST 780, covering all aspects of legal research and bibliography, collection planning, reference techniques, and integration of electronic resources into legal research, in both on-campus and online formats.
